- Do you live locally and care about your Abbey?
- Does this place hold a special meaning for you?
- Do you want to be part of its growth and development in the community?

The unique Saxon Rood in the South Garth

The vision of the Friends is ‘to bring together all those who love the Abbey and wish to support its life, work and ministry in the community’.

Pilgrims and visitors from all over the world come to this holy place. It contributes significantly to the local economy and is one of the major reasons for visiting the area. Like all great buildings, it depends for its upkeep on the generosity of the public. We invite you to respond to the inspiration of this place and to join a vibrant network of people who are interested and care about this place and its ministry.

We need your help

Today, more than ever, Romsey Abbey needs the support of Friends to help ensure that the unique ministry and place of the Abbey are maintained and enhanced, now and long into the future.

As a living community, we want to ensure that this and future generations will be inspired as so many have been before.

Membership of the Friends

The Friends of Romsey Abbey will be invited to

- a number of social events

and will also receive:

- An occasional newsletter/e-bulletin with news about Abbey life
- An invitation to the Annual Ethelflaeda Lecture.

Much more importantly, your financial support will enable us to develop the work and outreach of the Abbey to enhance its place within the community and the chance to fund projects outside the Abbey’s normal operating costs.

The more Friends we have, the greater our ability to make a difference.
